A Message From The Minister

Dear Friends,

I write this as the children have returned to school at the start of a new year. It can be a struggle to resume the regular morning pattern – getting everyone up, fed, lunches packed, uniforms on and out the door – after a summer that has been less structured. Yet despite the initial struggle, many children (and adults), find that they thrive in an environment where there is routine, a pattern to periods of learning, play and rest. Hopefully by the time you are reading this, we have all settled back into that rhythm!

As a Methodist Church, the start of the new school year also signals the start of a new church year. September is the time when new ministers begin appointments, and there are various meetings and pieces of work to be done. In local churches, many of the activities and groups resume, starting a new programme after a summer break. It is a busy time for many, as we settle back into the rhythm of church life. A rhythm that is marked weekly by patterns of collective prayer and worship, and seasonally by times of feasting and fasting, preparation and celebration, penitence and praise.

In July, the new President and Vice-President of the Methodist Conference announced that the theme they will explore over the coming year is Day by Day. They want to draw upon Acts 2: 42-47, one of the earliest descriptions of the church, to focus upon rhythms of Christian mission and discipleship. The Vice-President challenged us to consider how each part of the rhythm can be a moment of revelation – both laughter and lament have their places in the rhythm of life, and can become moments of encounter with God and growth in faith.

In particular, they identified five disciplines, five components, of the rhythm of discipleship and mission from that passage in Acts:

- Give thanks
- Keep Silence
- Pray
- Act
- Read & Reflect

Over the coming months, it is my intention to reflect a little more on each of these aspects. But as we settle into the new year, let me challenge you to consider the place and shape that each of these finds within the rhythm of your discipleship, your attempt to follow in the way of Jesus? Is there a balance to your rhythm of discipleship (over a day, week or longer period)? Is one (or more) missing? As many of us resume familiar rhythms of study, work, or service, let us ensure we are not neglecting the rhythm of our own discipleship and mission.

With every blessing
Bruce

BIG 'Thank You' from Kathleen Dell

Kathleen would like to thank everyone for the card she received on her 90th birthday.

Our Calling

Our Calling, in the Methodist Church in Britain, is to:

- ✳ increase awareness of God's presence and to celebrate God's love
- ✳ to be a good neighbour to people in need and to challenge injustice
- ✳ help people to grow and learn as Christians through mutual support and care
- ✳ make more followers of Jesus Christ

Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Acts 2: 46-47

'Thank You' from the Beanies Group

Many of you will know that over the past year or so, we have hosted the Beanies group on a Tuesday evening. This is a group for 7-10 yr olds, run by Andy Shiach of the Wonford & St. Paul's Community & Youth Project. Now that the Phoenix Suite has been refurbished, they will be moving their activities to be based there, however we received the following note of thanks:

"The use of your Hall, and ongoing support by the Methodist church has been a real blessing to the group and we have all very much appreciated your ongoing generosity and interest. The group has grown and developed as a direct result of your help, so again I would like to say thank you for stepping in when we needed the extra space. Please pass our thanks and gratitude to all involved."

Harvest Baskets

Harvest baskets will resume in September to support local families. There will be the opportunity to bring non-perishable items on any Sunday in September and on Harvest Festival - Sunday 1st October.

Please ask if you have any questions. Thank you.

Parenting Teenagers – Getting Them (and you!) Through

Wed 8 November, 7.30pm, Belmont Chapel

Do you feel like your teenager has become a different person overnight? Will they go out with you only if you wear a brown paper bag on your head? Or maybe your child is almost a teenager and you're feeling a bit apprehensive about what's ahead. It's normal!

There's hardly a mum or dad on the face of the earth who, at times, is not overawed by the task of parenting. And it's the teenage years that can be particularly challenging – especially the struggle to understand and keep up with our children's physical and emotional changes. At times like this, we often need a bit of encouragement and a reminder that we are not alone. At Parenting Teenagers – getting them (and you!) through Rob Parsons and Katharine Hill will look at some of the common issues faced by parents of teenagers. They'll share insights and ideas gained from their personal experience of working alongside parents for over thirty years. The evening will help you, as mums and dads of teenagers, feel empowered and encouraged and, most of all, it will help you know that the challenges you face are not unique.

Prospective Exeter City Centre Chaplains – Taster Evenings

Exeter City Centre Chaplaincy is looking for others to join its fifteen trained and commissioned Volunteer Chaplains. Between them the Chaplains visit over 200 retail premises, holding something like 700 staff greetings or conversations a month. Each Chaplain usually gives a morning per fortnight to visits. Although Exeter retail Chaplains do not openly promote their Christian faith they are trained to relate their faith to important issues and personal problems when asked.

If you have a pastoral heart and a listening ear, and are interested in joining the team, do consider coming to one of the introductory evenings EITHER Thursday 9th November OR Monday 20th November both at 7:30 pm. Venue: Mint Methodist Church, Fore Street, Exeter, EX4 3AT. [For more details or to make contact get in touch with Prebendary Norman Wallwork 01392 851966 n.wallwork@btinternet.com or Revd Paul Collings 01392 206229 paul.collings@methodist.org.uk]

Maggie's 50th Birthday & Nile Cruise Evening

Maggie and Paul Harmon would love you to come to a double celebration evening on Saturday 7 October at 7pm at Wonford Methodist Church. It will be a joint celebration of Maggie's 50th birthday and showing you all pictures of our Nile cruise we experienced last November. Many of you contributed to our trip of a lifetime and we would like to share this evening with you all. If you are able, please bring a little something to drink. Food and musical entertainment will be provided. It would be helpful to know if you are coming. Please let Maggie know by telephoning 07989072184. We look forward to sharing with you. No presents required, only your company.

Our Young Church's Annual Trip

On Saturday 9th September, 16 of us went to The World of Country Life at Sandy Bay, Exmouth. We set out with clothing for all weathers as the forecast was not promising but we were blessed and did keep dry. We had lots of fun walking young goats on leads (some of them were strong and quite mischievous!), watching beautiful birds of prey fly and perch very near to us and using up our energy on all of the play equipment. We all really enjoyed our ride on the deer train, when we had the chance to hand feed the deer and 2 large lamas from the tractor pulled train – the animals certainly were not shy and there was lots of laughter when some of them pushed their big heads in to the carriage as they searched for food!

We would like to say a big THANK YOU to the Church Council for kindly giving us money for the outing as we had a brilliant time together.

Shoebox Appeal 2017

This year we are collecting boxes through Blythswood Care, which is an established Christian charity based in Glasgow, Scotland. They bring hope to families in Europe, Africa and Asia through filled shoeboxes at Christmas, relief and development aid or social projects for young and old. Their motto is 'transforming lives through Christian care for body and soul'.

The boxes are covered in wrapping paper in the same way as last year but can now be for adults as well as teenagers and children. The categories are

Elderly Woman, Man, Woman, Teenage Boy, Teenage Girl, Boy or Girl. I will bring in some sample boxes and the leaflets, which provide a checklist of items that can be put in the shoeboxes. These include toiletries, stationery, toys & sweets as well as some items of clothing. Unlike the charity we supported last year, Blythswood have decided to keep the donation towards costs down at £3 per shoebox. Date for final collection at Wonford Methodist is Sunday 12th November.

Sue Keatt

PS. We need empty & unwanted shoeboxes to wrap so if you have any then please bring them in!

Wonford's Prayer Life

We especially want to thank Michael & Judith Maher for their years of dedicated and quiet leadership of our Prayer team here.

Over many years we have had here at Wonford a good variety of prayer-life since our 'new' Chapel, with its Quiet Room, was built nearly 11 years ago. On Sundays after the Service anyone can go into it for their prayer needs. During the week our Prayer Phone Link is available at any time. If you have a special need, phone Alan Rothwell in the first place, as explained every time in our newsletter at the end of our Prayer Focus. He will pass it on to 2 people, who pass it on to another 2, and so on; and so up to 15 of us will pray for your request wherever we are. Almost every Tuesday morning a few of us gather in the Quiet Room from 9.15am to 10 o'clock, with a Bible reading and a hymn leading us into informal prayers shared together. In the Wonford Green Surgery opposite there is a Prayer Box in the waiting room, where anyone can leave us a request for prayers, just like the one on the bookcase in our Hall here, which we collect each Tuesday before praying. Having read all this, we would welcome more pray-ers. So, do please have a word with one of us named below and offer yourself to join in whatever way you can to make our prayer-life even better.

There will be a few changes from 1st October, as follows:

- Sunday Mornings 'After Service' Prayer – Monika Noronha will do the rota for this
- Tuesday Morning Prayers - Margretta Bowstead will do the rota for this, with Monika having oversight of the GP Surgery Prayer Box
- Prayer Phone Link – The first point of contact will be Alan Rothwell; with Margaret Kearns and Margretta as 'deputies'
- Prayer Focus in our "Contact" newsletters will be done by Julie Rothwell.

We ask God to bless all we are doing.

Open the Book Research Proves Fruitful

For the last two years, Open the Book (OtB) has conducted independent research in several primary schools to measure how their storytelling assemblies have made a difference to the children's biblical literacy, Christian values and relationships with the local church. The consensus was that the knowledge and influence of Bible stories on the OtB groups was significantly positive and the OtB school children clearly retained Bible stories and characters better than their non-OtB school counterparts. It was evident that:

- ✳ OtB storytelling is highly valued and enjoyed by children, teachers and volunteers alike
- ✳ It develops the children's own sense of spirituality and helps form their world view
- ✳ It increases biblical literacy and builds moral character

One RE coordinator reinforced the relationship-building aspect when she said, 'It's lovely having some of the local Christian community coming into school.'

'Redeeming Gender' Talk

In the light of Bruce Sawyer's talk at the July Circuit Meeting on his MA research into transgender people's reading of the Bible, you might be interested to attend on Sunday 15 October, 2.30 – 4.30pm a talk by Rev Prof Adrian Thatcher on his latest book, 'Redeeming Gender'. Adrian is Honorary Professor in the Department of Theology & Religion at the University of Exeter. This is an open-to-all meeting of the PCN/Progressive Christian Network at the Southernhay URC Hall; and there is a charge of £2.50 per person.

Thank You for All the Shoes!

The Shoe Drive at Exminster is now closed and we have a sizeable mountain of shoes, handbags and belts! These will be sold by the Gambia Fellowship Association and the money raised used to buy new school shoes for children in The Gambia.

Exminster's 2017 Christmas Tree Festival

Plans are well underway for Exminster's 2017 Christmas Tree Festival over the weekend of 1st to 3rd December with an opportunity for group visits on Monday 4th. All money raised will be given to good causes in Devon including Action for Children.

Churches, groups, organisations, families, individuals, businesses and are all invited to display a decorated tree at the Festival and help make it the biggest and brightest yet. You can bring along your Christmas tree (real or artificial) and decorate it in your own colours, ideas etc. Why not start planning now! Entry is free.

Entry forms and details are available from Jeny on 01392 832553 or email exminstermethodists@yahoo.co.uk

Theme Preaching Series for Our Autumn Programme

Our theme preaching for the Autumn period will be focussing on Lesser Known New Testament characters. We get to hear a lot about Jesus and his mother Mary, about Peter, James and John and about the adventures of Paul but we hear less about some of the other important characters from the New Testament. So this series takes a look at these “lesser known” folk, who they were, what they did and what we can learn from their lives and work. We hope you enjoy standing in the shoes of Simeon and Anna, sorting out who’s who of the six Marys and distinguishing the two Philips as well as all the other characters we shall meet. Enjoy the series. Here’s the full programme of characters and service leaders.

The Marriage Sessions:

COLLABORATE

Wednesday 15th November, 7.30pm – 9.30pm

Wonford Methodist Church

An opportunity to invest in, and enrich, your relationship.

Explore:

- some of the common pressures couples face
- what happens when this leads to disagreements
- how to handle conflict well and move forward together

Reflections on The Marriage Sessions

Bill and I have attended the two Marriage Sessions which Bruce has organised over the last year. In one word they can be described as SPACE.

Space to just sit and chat with your partner, space to think about what matters in our relationship, space to watch a video and discuss the questions raised, space to enjoy light refreshments.

We were able to sit and be together with no pressures like group discussions, Q and A sessions and NO role play! The surroundings were comfortable and nicely lit with seating spaced out to provide privacy. Drinks and desserts were provided by a team of helpers [Paul Johnson, Paul Violet, Margretta, Pauline and Wayne - please forgive me if I have forgotten anyone! Your service made it all the more special, thank you.]

Also, the sessions came at a great time for us, just as we were getting used to an empty nest! We were very aware that we were entering a new era in our relationship. To be given this kind of support at this time was very special. Finally, it was a real treat to turn up at church and be able to enjoy the evening without any duties to carry out.

Thanks to all involved! We look forward to the next one, and encourage you to attend – you won't be disappointed!

Monika and Bill
