A Message From The Minister

Keep silence.

For some of us, this might be one of the harder rhythms of discipleship.

That might be because we are the one always talking! Or because we are the kind of person whose head is always full of ideas, thoughts, questions or worry; silent on the outside, but inside there is a noise of competing thoughts.

For others, the idea of being silent itself might be problematic because we see the damage that has been done when people have been silenced, or because we see too much about which we feel we should not, cannot, keep silent (e.g. poverty).

Perhaps you are thinking that Christmas is hardly the appropriate time for silence! What about all the Christmas cheer? What about angels filling the skies and singing “Glory to God”?

But keeping silence is a part of Christmas too.

One of the most well-known carols begins, “Silent night”. When the angel first appears to Mary to announce she is pregnant, she is confused, she ponders what greeting she is given, but initially she does not speak (Luke 1: 29). Does Mary keep silent here because she instinctively realises that this is a time to listen? There will be a time to give thanks, to praise (Luke 1:46-55), but for now, she needs to listen, to seek to hear, to take in, all that God is doing.

Later, when the shepherds appear in Bethlehem after the birth, they are the ones talking of what has been made known to them, and leave telling of all that has been seen and heard. But again, Mary appears to be silent, treasuring the shepherd’s words and pondering them in her heart (Luke 2: 19). Is her silence here one of intimacy? A silence through which God speaks tenderly of the blessings of what has begun that night.

In both these instances, silence is an appropriate response. Were Mary to speak, it would seem to jar with the sweep of the story – God is at work, God is the central character, not Mary. Words might get in the way. Mary’s silence creates space for God’s grace to be at work. For the gift to be received.

As part of the rhythm of discipleship, when and where will you keep silent this Christmas? How will you use silence to listen for God, to take in what God is doing? Perhaps you too, in the stillness, and the slowing of silence, will discover a deeper intimacy with God.

With every blessing for a peaceful and joyful Christmas

Rev Bruce Sawyer

Stationing Update

The circuit is delighted that, subject to Conference, two successful matches have been made.

Rev'd Wayne Grewcock has accepted an invitation to serve in the Budleigh/Exmouth/Lympstone section, and Rev'd Ben Haslam has accepted an invitation to serve at Wonford (where he will also be responsible for Exminster, Honiton, Ottery St. Mary and Farway).

Again, subject to Conference, our own minister Bruce has accepted an invitation to serve in the West Durham circuit. The family will move to Stanhope over the summer where from September Bruce will be working with 3 churches and 3 fellowship groups spread throughout Weardale.

Please remember all circuits and ministers still awaiting an appropriate match as the stationing process continues, and continue to pray for those who have been matched as a time of transition begins.

Advent Service

On Sunday 3rd December there will be no evening service at Wonford Methodist Church as we will be joining with other local Christians from the Heavitree area for an Advent Service at St. Michael's Church, at 4pm. It would be great to see this well supported by Wonford folk – it's a great opportunity to worship with other local Christians, and sing some great Advent Carols.

Carols in the Ruins

Following the success of the first act of worship at the ruined chapel in St. Loyes (Rifford Road) for hundreds of years, another is already planned! On Monday 18th December at 6pm there will be Carol Singing in the ruins, with soup. Please bring a torch.

Messy Church in January 2018

This will be on the 21st, 4-6pm and the theme will be 'Love Rules'.

Away Group

Away Group is the House Group that isn't Home Group. We have really wonderful times of Bible Study, prayer and fellowship with a lovely group of people.

We meet every week and most times there are 12 of us present - sometimes more; sometimes less. There's always room for more if you want to experience a great supporting group of people in your Christian life. Come and try us.

After the Christmas/New year break we will be starting up again on the 8th, 15th and 22nd of January 2018 with a new study topic. Watch the church notices for the venues.

Cranbrook & Cornerstone Prayer Day

This gave me plenty of new information about that ever-growing new town, and its various needs and challenges. From it's beginning in September 2012, when the first residents moved in, there have been a few dedicated Christian workers making up the Cornerstone Church there. The first minister, Mark Gilborson, and others visited and welcomed all new house occupiers and began to form a real community working for all who lived there, enabling different groups to form and build each other up.

As time has passed, this continues as part of the work of their present minister, Lythan Nevard. I learned there are now 43 different community groups in Cranbrook, some part of larger outside organisations; but some set up by and for Cranbrook folk - from a Running Group to BSL/British Sign Language Social Group, and 41 others as well!

Lythan shared the challenges of Cornerstone Church organised events - some overwhelmed by the numbers attending, and others hardly attended at all. She asked for our continuing prayers for the town and Cornerstone Church; and gave thanks for all that is good in their growing community.

Please do continue to keep Lythan and Cornerstone Church folk in your prayers.

Exeter Foodbank

We were pleased to read in the Foodbank newsletter that Rev Terry Spencer is joining the Exeter Foodbank's management team. It says that Terry has been a team leader for them at the Mint and at Beacon Heath and is starting to get involved at the store too. After retiring from full time Methodist Ministry four years ago, Terry chose to volunteer in a community role - something he'd not been able to do given his church commitments. Many thanks for the continued support for the Foodbank. Gifts of non-perishable food are welcome. In 2016/17, Exeter Foodbank provided 3 days' worth of emergency food to 5,174 local people.

You can find out about Exeter Foodbank at <https://exeter.foodbank.org.uk/>

HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL DAY 2018

What Do You Believe Heaven Is Like?

Having received encouraging reviews of my 'Do You Believe in Miracles Still?', I thought that I'd write this sequel to warm you up in the bleak mid winter.

Jesus said in John 14 (KJV) "My Father's Kingdom Is like Mansions with many rooms." In 1964, we travelled up this long, windy and overgrown drive and as we passed the old red glass lantern a huge 60 room mansion came into view. We visited on several weekends and then mum said that this was going to be our new home.

Mum was a trained district nurse and became a live-in secretary to a new Christian Community on the outskirts of Withycombe Raleigh. We moved into Bystock on August 4th 1965.

To me, an 8 year old boy, it was a wonderland, especially with my best friends Mark and Laura. Let me tell you about two of those 60 rooms.

The hallway, walled with reindeer heads, had a splendid stairway, that Father Christmas would come down, ringing his bell, to be greeted by the children, all the while being watched by the eyes of Jesus, who followed you wherever you went from the painting opposite. After Father Christmas was led into a magnificent ballroom, which had elaborate chandeliers and a huge fireplace, to a really tall and decorated Christmas Tree. From under the tree Father Christmas called us each by name to receive our very own present.

Bystock, truly was a Winter Wonderland, when snow laid all around and a foretaste of heaven on earth.

I dedicate this article to my dear mum who passed away in February of this year, who is united with her friends and family in one of those mansions today.

Enjoy every moment, that this Christmas brings.

With love From Sharon and Nick.

Pray for all people who will be lonely, cold & without a loved one or who face illness. Thank God for all those who reach out to those less fortunate.

Week beginning 31st.

With only a morning service & no meetings this week, pray for the New Year ahead to prepare for the Covenant Service & how you can be used by God in the coming year.

PLEASE NOTE the Tuesday prayer meeting will NOT meet on Dec 26th & Jan 2nd. However if you have any prayer requests please contact in the usual way.

MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE &
GOD BLESS YOU ALL IN 2018

January

Pray Without Ceasing

Week beginning 7th. Happy New Year everyone.

We begin 2018 with our All Age Worship at 10am. Please pray for all our young people as they start the new school term & for the Girls Brigade, Junior Church & Messy Church & all the leaders as they prepare. Also pray for the Mums & Tots group. Pray for all who attend & for all the leaders & helpers as they meet together.

Week beginning 14th

Pray for our Covenant service that takes place today. Pray that we will think about our role in the life of the church. How can we use the gifts that we have been given to reach others.

Week beginning 21st.

Today sees the start of The Week For Christian Unity beginning with a united service at Belmont Chapel at 6.30pm. Pray that ALL denominations will unite to show God's love at a time when there seems to be so much division in our world.

Week beginning 28th.

Pray for Messy Church today as they start the New Year with lots of fun learning more of our wonderful Saviour. Pray for those who attend that would not normally go to any church. May their hearts be open to the Gospel.

During this month please pray for the M.E.T Conference that takes place in Torquay over the weekend of January 26th, 27th & 28th. Pray for Rev Paul Smith as he prepares the talks & for all who attend. Pray also for the hotel staff that they will see Christ in us & find Him for themselves.

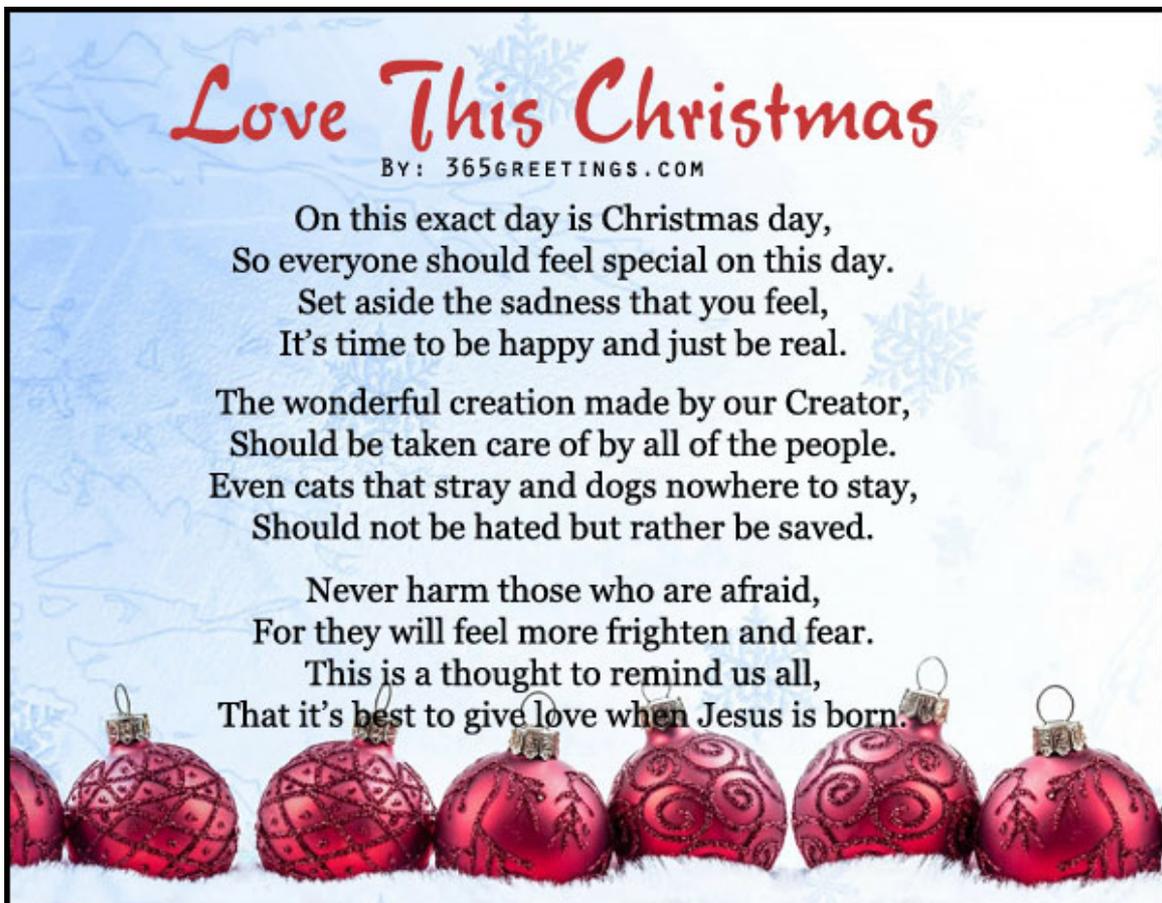

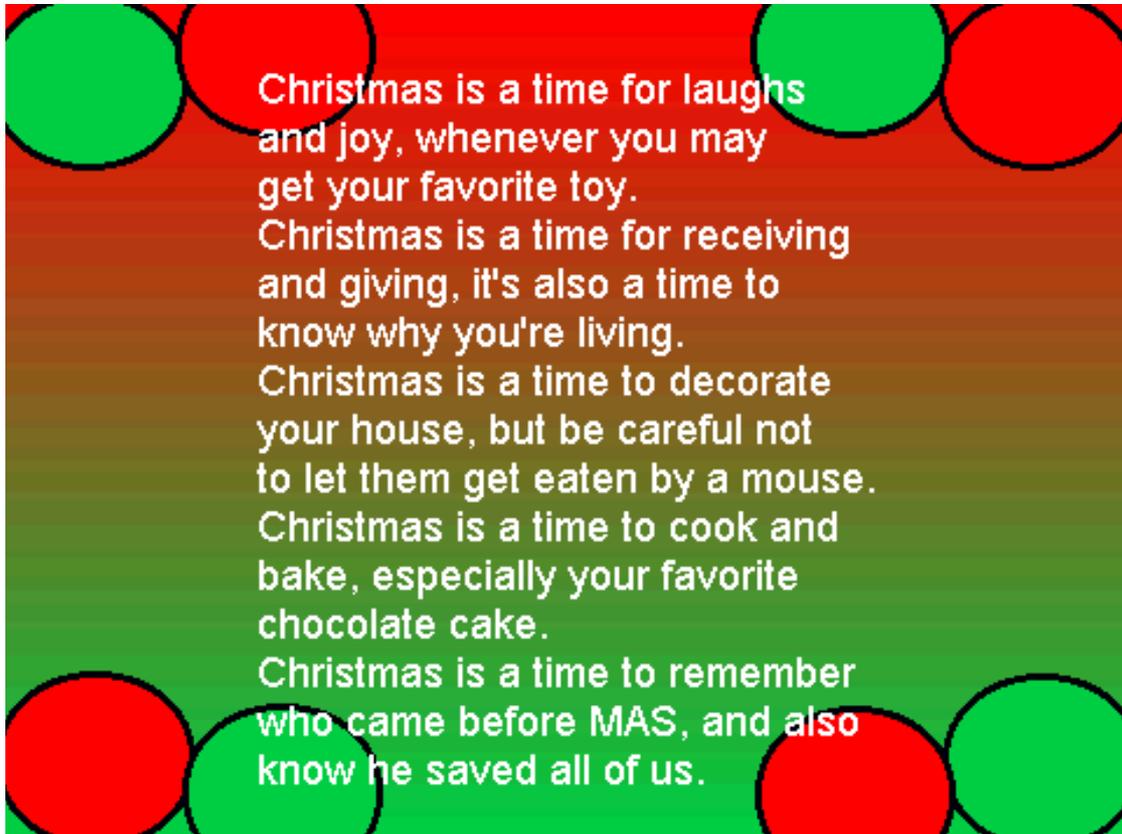

Phone Prayer Link

Should you, or those you know, wish to be supported in prayer, the first contact is now Rev Alan Rothwell (01392 926840). Your request will then be passed to members of the Prayer Link who will pray for your need. If the first contact is unavailable, please contact Margretta Bowstead (437329) or Margaret Kearns (679949).

After Church Prayer Support

This is available in the Quiet Room on Sunday mornings. Two members of the Prayer Team will be available to pray with you.

News From The Methodist Church

ICAN win Nobel Peace Prize

The Revd Loraine N Mellor and Jill Baker, the President and the Vice-President of the Methodist Conference, congratulated the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons (ICAN) on being awarded the 2017 Nobel Peace Prize.

ICAN, a coalition of hundreds of non-governmental organisations and faith groups, received the award after being instrumental in getting the majority of the world's nations to sign up to a UN Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons.

The Revd Loraine N Mellor said: "Nuclear weapons are totally opposed to the love that God has for humankind. They represent a denial of hope, a challenge to community and a threat to peace. We live in a world of tension and it is becoming abundantly clear that nuclear weapons do not make us safer but are themselves a source of fear and dispute."

The Methodist Church has consistently stated that nuclear weapons are incompatible with ethical principles and international law. It has advocated for the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons through resources and support of community action. Methodist Church leaders and members have joined with other churches and faith groups in the UK on many occasions, for example with statements in 2015 and in 2016.

The most important Christmas card you'll send this year

Methodist Homes (MHA) is asking church members and children to write just one extra Christmas card and share the joy of Christmas with an MHA resident or Live at Home scheme member. If you can send them your greetings MHA will pass them on.

For more details please see the MHA website.
